The Best Bill of the Season at Poli's.

One of the heat bills that has been brought to this city is billed at Poli's this week, beginning with the matinee this afterneon. Another act furnished by Josee Lasky. The Eight Hoboos, who produced the Plane Phienes which made such a hit here two weeks ago, will be the headliner. This act is one of the funniest acts in vaulteville toway. One of the heat Japanese troupes will be seen in the famous Fatsuda Troupe. This act is one of the largest acts of its kind on the vaudeville singe. Hose & Severn in The Automobile Disaster is one of those acts that keep the public in a constant room. Eckert is the part in an oriental musical offering diry a carload of their own special carry and thatle Bolden, two colored cartestainers, are a clever pair of colored people. Henry Sanber, the Hebrew comedian, never fails to please that will be sure to attract the attention of those who appreciate a baryou. He comes here with a fresh sup-ply of fun. Election returns will be read from the stage Tuasday night.

BREED THEATER

The Cow Puncher's Sweetheart, a Books of Reference, mervalous story of the prairies, is the title of the feature picture at the Breed theater today and tells its thrillures, and to lovers of honseflesh particular, this picture is especially teresting, as the film carries many scenes, wherein the climax is brought scelles, wherein the chimax is prolight about by some fearless bits of horse-manship, the bewildering scenery being no small attraction. There is a missterly Biograph planue, rold in their highlable way, while a superb society picture is another has offering. POETRY.

WITH THE RHYMSTERS.

There was a young fellow named Coony
Who fell in love and got moony.
On the girl, which was rash,
He spent all his cash.
When she shook him, all said: "Now
who's loony?"
—Baltimore American.

The smuggler used to be a man
Of rugged fare and manner.
Who marshaled his ill seeming clan
Beneath an outlaw banner.
But now the person who is found
In such transactions shady,
In social life holds lofty ground,
And sometimes is a lady?
—Washington Star,

We knew her, be it understood, And it was quite a blow When she forsook our neighborhood About nine cooks ago.

But now the lady, when we pass,
No friendship doth evince;
She got beyond our humble class
At least three husbands since,
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

IT CAME BACK.

-New York Star.

Only a pair of dark brown eyes, Only a dimple sweet; Only the clouded autumn skies, Only a muddy street. Only a glance from the eyes of brown, Only a friendly smile; Only a maid in a fetching gown, Only a bit of guile.

Only a hoy with an ardent heart, Only a gust of rain; Only a glance at a taxi-cart, Only a sudden pain.

Only a deeply anxious thrill, Only a frown of rue; Only a lone forn dollar bill, Only a swift skiddoe! -Wilberforce Jenkins, in Harper's Weekly.

VIEWS AND VARIETIES Clever Sayings "Have you many friends?" "How can I tell? My money isn't all gone yet."—Boston Transcript,

"Do you believe a man's character can be judged from his handwriting?" "Yes, if his letters are read in court." —Judge. "I consider him as honest as the day is long." 'Yes; but the days are getting shorter."—N. Y. Telegram. The Hon. Bertie—Anything unusual happen while I was out, Charles? His Man Charles—Yes, sir; your tailor didn't call.—London Opinion.

Knicker—Jones is what they call a book farmer. Bocker—Yes; he has used up two check books already.—N. Y. Sun. Agent—The spesdometer will enable you to know how fast you are going. Otto Fiend—I don't need one. My bank balance tells me that just as well.—Detroit Free Press.

Diggs—I see that they're making brandy from sawdust. Wiggs—Good gracious! as if the forests were not disappearing fast enough as it is!— Cleveland Plain Dealer. "There is in Maine a woman who has composed 40,000 prayers, and she says every one of them has been answered." I wonder," asked the Massachusetts schoolma'am, "If she ever prayed for a husband?"—Chicago Record-Herald.

"There are twice as many men in the poorhouse as there are women." proclaimed the suffragette triumph-antly. "Sure," sneered the mere man in the audience. "You dames git the money and we git the rest."—Cleve-land Leader.

All up and down the town we see:
"Umbrelias to mend!"
But wouldn't this old world be fine
If we could only see the sign: "Umbrellas to land!"

"Umbrelies to lend!"
—Chicago News.

I said to the tailor: "Hello!
How's business, old fellow, quite slow?
Or does it just go so
You might call it so-so?"
"Not so-so," he answered, "but sew!"

"You are going to the polls regard-less of the weather?" "Yep," replied Farmer Corntossel; "my idea of a real patriot is a man who will travel jest as far to cast his ballot as he wou to see a circus."—Washington Star.
